

Do you know someone who is state pension age?

Over 38,000 people in Greater Manchester are not claiming the Pension Credit they're entitled to.

1 in 4 people of State Pension age can claim Pension Credit. You should check to see if you're eligible for Pension Credit. We'd encourage you to tell family members or friends to check whether they may qualify too.

People over the State Pension age with a low income may be eligible for extra financial support for housing costs. Additional help is available if they are severely disabled, a carer, or responsible for children. Pension Credit can also provide access to other benefits, such as council tax reductions, help with heating bills, the Winter Fuel Payment, and a free TV licence for those aged 75 or older.

The average Pension Credit claim in Greater Manchester is worth £3,400 a year.
